[adsense_id="1163"]Related Posts: It was the most desired object in the whole world, and we weren't gonna let anyone stop us from getting it. Whether they be corporations, governments, or militant hackers - we didn't care as long as we got it. That's why we created the most talked about hacking challenge, Hack The Planet. It was the opportunity for hacking groups to collaborate and come up with better, more effective ways to hack things. Over the next two weeks, the best hackers in the world would clash in a quest to gain more control over the Internet and the world around us. Along the way, we discovered that many of the best hackers were like us - hackers with a social conscience, that wanted to help out and use their skills for the greater good. Hack The Planet: Making History As The First Worldwide Cyber Conflict. The Hacking has started! That's right, we're just one week into the hack and we've already made history by becoming the first world wide cyber conflict. Hackers from all over the globe have joined forces to hack every corporation, government agency, militant group, and corporation in the world. When we began this hack we gave ourselves the goal to send out the most impactful message that we could. So far we've seen countries, corporations, and people unite in the most profound way and we want to make sure that message is spread throughout the world. The Hacking has been going on for just about a week now, and it's been amazing. The fact that hackers from all over the world have already come together and are working together to make history as the first worldwide cyber conflict is incredible. We've already seen hackers from North Korea, Iran, Australia, Canada, the United States, and 2d92ce491b
