The Green Party of Canada has announced the following party leader, who will serve as the federal leader of the Green Party of Canada. Elizabeth May, MP, Leader of the Green Party of Canada, Leader of the Opposition and the Parliament of Canada. This is the official statement of the Green Party of Canada: “Elizabeth May is the leader of the Green Party of Canada. As a co-founder of the party in 1991, Elizabeth has held many roles in our national movement, including as Parliamentary Leader, the party’s founder and leader, and as the party’s first MP. As Party Leader, Elizabeth will lead the Green Party of Canada as it engages in the election process this year, and as the party continues to build strong, unified communities and advocate for the policies that can make Canada a leader in the global green economy. Green Party of Canada policies In addition to electing Green MPs, the Green Party of Canada also provides Canadians with a choice for responsible federal government. With Elizabeth May as its leader, the Green Party of Canada’s policies are as follows:

- To develop a Canada-based energy policy that eliminates fossil fuel use by 2050.
- To immediately implement a ban on all new fossil fuel extraction and new tar sands development.
- To phase out the use of coal for electricity generation by 2030.
- To phase out the use of coal for electricity generation by 2025.
- To phase out nuclear power generation by 2025.
- To ban all nuclear energy by 2050.
- To phase out nuclear power generation in Ontario.
- To expand the network of publicly owned, publicly accessible and publicly operated renewable electricity generation to 30% of the electricity
